Tanner Elected to ABOTA, Serves as YCCP Director

Jacksonville – Partner Michael G. Tanner of Tanner Bishop in Jacksonville has been elected to the Jacksonville Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates, a national organization dedicated to the preservation of civil jury trials. The organization seeks attorneys who display skill, civility and integrity.

In addition, Tanner recently was appointed as one of three directors of YCC Properties Inc., which owns the property where the Youth Crisis Center in Jacksonville is constructing its New Life Village. The village is a facility to provide foster children with the skills to transition from foster living into independent adult living.

Tanner is the immediate past chair of The Florida Bar Board of Legal Specialization & Education and is board certified in business litigation and civil trial.

Tanner may be reached at (904)598-0034 or mtanner@tannerbishoplaw.com.
